

FAQ Constantinus European Award 2016

How many nominations can be appointed by each institute?

According to the number of all member countries participating in the Constantinus European Award, the number of projects that may be nominated has been fixed at max. three.

How does the application process work?

Application will happen online via an application tool on the homepage of Constantinus European. This tool will be ready for registration of the participants December 14, 2015. From this moment on, national nominees may register and fill in the application form online. Application period ends on February 14, 2016. The language of application will be English.

What is the scope of projects that may be nominated?

Here you find detailed information on this topic.

How are the projects evaluated?

The projects will be evaluated by a jury. Evaluation will also be possible online. Evaluation criteria are stated in a separate document.

Can the member countries appoint jury members? If so, how many?

Of course each country has the right to appoint up to two jury members. We will be happy to receive your suggestions. Additionally, we would like to stress clearly the importance of jury members that have a reputation as consultants or are in a decisive position in a company that might represent a possible client.

When does the jury start evaluating the projects?

Evaluation process starts on March 19, 2016. The members of the jury will then have one month time to fill in the evaluation form provided on the Constantinus European homepage. Evaluation process ends on March 13, 2016.

How many projects will receive the Constantinus European Award?

There will be one single gold medalist and two silver medalists. Being nominated is already a great honour.

The application fee for the Award is € 1.000,- excl. VAT. Who will send the invoice? Are there any further costs involved?

The application fee amounts to € 1.000,00 excl. VAT for each institute (not for the applicant) and covers organizational costs (e.g. website, first level support through the Constantinus Office etc.). Therefore the invoice will be sent by Constantinus Club during the month of May. There are no further obligatory costs. However, we strongly recommend the IMCs to have some marketing measures accompanying the award.
